

Count de Breteuil and Miss Ridgway Married in Paris

Daughter of Mrs. C. Henry
Ridgway Bride of French
Nobleman.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
Copyright, 1921, by THE NEW YORK HERALD.

Paris society turned out to witness the marriage to-day of Miss Elizabeth Ridgway, daughter of Mrs. C. Henry Ridgway of Paris and Philadelphia, to Count Jacques de Breteuil, who was Miss Lita Garmet. The engagement of the couple was announced last February.

The bride's mother, who is well known in Philadelphia society, has long been a resident of Paris. The Breteuil family is one of the oldest in France and is connected with the highest nobility. After a honeymoon in southern France the couple will reside in Paris.

The bride wore a white satin dress and veil which had been worn in turn by her mother, her grandmother and her great grandmother.

The marriage of Miss Ridgway to Count Jacques de Breteuil marks the second chapter in a double romance among members of two noted and old French families with American connections. The engagements of Miss Ridgway to Count Jacques and of Miss Benjamin, member of a wealthy Argentine family living in Paris, to Count Hubert de Ganay, cousin of Miss Ridgway, were announced simultaneously on February 25. Count Hubert and Miss Benjamin were married in Paris a few days ago. Count Hubert is a son of the Dowager Marquise de Ganay, who is a sister-in-law of Mrs. C. Henry Ridgway.

CAPT. W. A. SNOW TO WED MRS. M. P. CAMERON

Engagement Announced by Her Mother, Mrs. C. L. Payne.

Mrs. Charles Leicester Payne of Montclair, N. J., announces the engagement of her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Payne Cameron, to Capt. William A. Snow, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A. Mrs. Cameron is the granddaughter of Mrs. William H. Payne of 98 Park avenue, New York, and the widow of Lieut. Douglas Telford Cameron, Seventh Field Artillery, First Division, who was killed in action in the Meuse-Argonne offensive.

Capt. Snow, who is a son of Major-General William A. Snow, chief of field artillery, was graduated from West Point in 1916. During the war he served with the Second Engineers, Second Division, and was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, the Chevalier de Legion d'Honneur and the Croix de Guerre with two palms. Capt. Snow is at present taking an advanced course at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, from which he will be graduated in June.

MRS. WILLIAM MILLER GRAHAM OBTAINS DIVORCE IN OKLAHOMA

Recently Announced Breaking of Daughter's Engagement to Mr. Whitney Warren, Jr.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., April 14.—Mrs. William Miller Graham of Santa Barbara and New York, where she is well known in society, has obtained a divorce.

Although the divorce was signed last January in Oklahoma, the fact has just become public here, causing great surprise, although it had been known that she and her husband were living apart.

Records at Tulsa, Okla., show that Mrs. Eleanor Graham and her husband were granted a divorce from William Miller Graham there January 22. Mrs. Graham filed a complaint charging desertion. The husband filed a cross complaint charging desertion. In the afternoon the court ruled in favor of the wife.

Mrs. Graham is residing in Tulsa and refuses to make a statement. Alimony was stipulated out of court and is said to be a large sum to be paid annually for a period of years, most of which is to be used for the support of their son, William Miller Graham, 14 years of age, and their daughter, Miss Geraldine Miller Graham, who is 19.

"It is a bad breach of confidence on the part of some one who is supposed to be my friend that there has been any disclosure of the divorce," said Mrs. Graham when she was asked to comment. When I returned home last January there was a general agreement that it would not be discussed," said Mrs. Graham at her home here to-day.

Mrs. Graham refused to discuss the matter.

A few days ago Mrs. Graham conferred at her home in Santa Barbara with the board of directors of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Geraldine Miller Graham, to Mr. Whitney Warren, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Warren of this city.

Mrs. Graham and her daughter have passed considerable time in New York and Newport during the last few years. When in this city they took an apartment at the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria.

WOMEN ASK HARDING AID IN ENDING WARS

Voters' League Seeks Lead of President in Plan to Reduce Armaments.

MRS. PARK IS REELECTED
Consideration of Birth Control
Voted Down by 156 to 82
in Convention.

CLEVELAND, April 14.—The National League of Women Voters formally went on record to-day against all war by adopting a resolution urging President Harding and Congress to initiate a movement to obtain cooperation with other nations for the reduction of armaments at the earliest possible time. This followed the speech last night of the veteran leader, Carrie Chapman Catt of New York, who demanded that women voters consecrate themselves to put was out of the world.

A resolution was unanimously adopted to-day naming the national board of directors of the league a committee to put their action before President Harding and Congress at once.

Carrying forward the resolutions committee when the "world peace" text was offered to the delegates for consideration. Led by Mrs. Catt the delegates formulated the original resolution by amendment and then unanimously adopted it.

Mrs. James Porter, delegate from Winnetka, Ill., presented a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors of the Social Hygiene Committee had decided not to include it for consideration. By a vote of 156 to 82, consideration of the resolution was voted down. Many prominent delegates, however, voted in favor of considering the resolution.

Opposition also developed to the report of Mrs. Edward P. Connelley's food supply and demand committee recommendation that the stock yards be placed under railroad control.

Mrs. Marie McGee, delegate of Boston, was reelected head of the league, her title now being national president instead of chairman. Mrs. Richard Edwards was reelected vice-president.

Miss Belle Sherwin, of Cleveland, second vice-president; Mrs. S. T. McKnight, of Minneapolis, treasurer, and Mrs. Thomas Jacobs, of Birmingham, Ala., secretary.

Another bridge party of this afternoon will be held in the small ball room of the Plaza for the purpose of raising funds for the National League of Women Voters.

Sixty tables will be set for the occasion. The new house was packed in France and Belgium and also to provide recreation for children in the isolated districts of the United States.
